Virginia Natural Gas Peninsula Headquarters: 8-acre-plus land options

Twenty-seven parcels and tracts that clear the 8-acre floor, ranked by how well they fit a corporate headquarters for a regulated gas utility: by-right office or industrial zoning, public ownership or a motivated seller, interstate access, and a site the owner will actually sell you. Preferred target is 10 acres; everything here is 8 or more, or can be carved from a larger tract. Includes a dedicated pass on company-held land that is not on the market, led by the CHKD tract at City Center.

Read this before you pitch VNG

VNG is not publicly shopping for a new corporate headquarters. Corporate HQ stays at 544 S. Independence Blvd in Virginia Beach, and the company broke ground in May 2025 on a $50 million Operations Headquarters at 401 Clearfield Ave in Chesapeake for about 150 people, due late 2026 or early 2027. The company has 400-plus employees and lists Newport News as a regional office (a 2020 Virginia 811 record puts it at 746 Diligence Drive; unverified today). The credible Peninsula story is a consolidated Peninsula regional headquarters and service center, or a corporate relocation after the Chesapeake build settles. Size the pitch accordingly.

What 10 acres buys: roughly 120,000 to 160,000 SF of two- or three-story office with surface parking at 4 per 1,000 SF, or 80,000 to 100,000 SF of office plus a secured fleet and materials yard. A fleet yard is the usual reason a utility needs 12 to 15 acres instead of 10, so the 14-plus-acre options below are not oversize.

Scoring matrix

Five factors, each scored 0 to 3. Zoning scores by-right office or industrial use for a utility HQ. Control scores whether a public owner or active listing means you can actually transact. Image scores interstate visibility, address quality and surrounding amenities. Readiness scores utilities, remediation and site work. Acreage scores fit to a 10 to 15 acre program without buying a farm.

Company-held land: the CHKD tract and others not on the market

Land a company or institution bought for its own expansion and never built on. None of it is listed, so the play is a direct conversation with the owner. Expect a slower yes and a cleaner site than anything the EDA is marketing.

22 · 591 City Center Blvd, vacant CHKD land

Newport News

PARCEL 183-00-01-29 · OYSTER POINT SUBMARKET · RECORDED OWNER CHILDRENS REAL ESTATE LLC, A CHKD ENTITY

ACRES

14.93 acres, vacant. Clears the 10-acre target with room for a fleet yard, or for a phase-two pad CHKD could keep.

OWNER

Childrens Real Estate LLC, the title-holding entity for Children's Hospital of The King's Daughters. Purchased 11 Nov 2016 for $10,030,141 (about $672,000 per acre, $15.42 per SF). Held vacant for nearly ten years. The purchase predates the current CEO, who took over in December 2022.

ZONING

C-2 General Commercial. Office is a by-right use. The city's own stated proposed use is commercial, medical or office.

WHY IT FITS

Same submarket as VNG's existing Newport News service center at 746 Diligence Dr, so a consolidation story writes itself. City Center address, I-64 at J. Clyde Morris, Jefferson Lab and Tech Center as neighbors, utilities in the street, no demolition, no remediation.

Ten million dollars of idle land is either a strategic hold under leadership review or dead capital. Either way the conversation is the same: CHKD's capital is going to Norfolk (new cardiovascular ICU, Olney Road construction through mid-2026), its Peninsula outpatient footprint is already served by the Rock Landing surgery center and the Tech Center urgent care, and a credit-tenant utility is the kind of buyer or ground tenant a nonprofit board can approve without a fight.

Related CHKD holding. The 7.95-acre Health & Surgery Center parcel at 11783 Rock Landing Dr (APN 196.00-01-60) is a separate CHKD property and stays in use. Site 23 (895 City Center Blvd) is a third party's medical campus, not part of this tract.

CALL FIRST	Jason Mueller, Vice President, Facilities and Support Services. His portfolio explicitly includes Real Estate, Construction and Facilities for every CHKD location (over 2 million SF). Architecture degree, Ohio State; MBA, UMGC.
REACH	CHKD main switchboard, 757-668-7000, ask for the Facilities and Support Services office. Profile: chkd.org, About Us, Leadership and Key Staff. No verified direct line or email found; CHKD addresses follow first.last@chkd.org, so the format is likely but unconfirmed.
BACKUPS	Kathy Abshire, Senior Vice President of Finance and CFO (a land sale clears through her). Tara Estabrooks, VP Strategic Planning and Business Development (title per third-party directories; verify). Amy Sampson, President and CEO since Dec 2022, for a principal-to-principal approach.
NOTE	Older directories still list Tamika Harris in Mueller's role. She has moved on; do not open with her name.

BASIS	$10.03M paid in 2016. Add roughly ten years of carry (real estate tax on C-2 land at City Center plus opportunity cost) and CHKD's make-whole number is in the $11M to $13M range.
SALE	Comparable C-2 and C-4 land at Oyster Point and City Center trades roughly $500K to $800K per acre, so $7.5M to $12M on 14.93 acres. The deal clears near basis, not below it. Expect an ask at $12M or more.
GROUND LEASE	At a 6 to 7 percent land yield on an $11M value, $660K to $770K per year, with CPI bumps. Keeps the asset on CHKD's balance sheet and avoids a nonprofit asset-disposition process.

CARVE

VNG needs 10 to 12 acres. Offering to leave CHKD a 3 to 5 acre pad on the Jefferson Ave side gives them a future medical office site and lowers your price.

Opening line that works: you know the parcel, the date and the price. A regulated utility HQ is a credit tenant and a quiet neighbor. Lead with the ground lease, then let them ask about a sale.

OWNER

Private; Hamner Development Company handles leasing (Alan Meetze, 757-871-3738). Owner of record to confirm.

NEIGHBOR

875 City Center Blvd, 6.85 ac, Advanced Technologies Inc headquarters (757-873-3017), occupied. Together the two parcels are 15.04 acres.

Low-density 1990s medical buildings on 8 acres of C-4 at City Center is a redevelopment site in waiting, but it is occupied income property with five tenants, so it only moves at a price that clears their leases. Ask Hamner who owns it and whether they would entertain a sale with leaseback or relocation.

Canon's 165-acre campus is heavily landscaped and under-built for its size, and headcount has fallen from about 2,300 in the 1990s to roughly 1,000 after 2024 layoffs. No surplus has been declared. Checked and ruled out. Liebherr used its 28 spare acres on Chestnut Ave for the 2020 campus expansion. Bon Secours is building a $200M tower on its Mary Immaculate campus (groundbreaking May 2026), so its Denbigh land is spoken for. Riverside's only recent Peninsula land buy is the 5.1-acre Brentwood Shopping Center at 10500 Jefferson Ave, too small. Huntington Ingalls' recent land moves are in Norfolk and South Carolina. The former Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind site in Hampton went to NorthPoint for warehouses, with the city keeping 10 acres of pines. Sentara shows no idle Peninsula acreage in public records.

Also confirm the owner of record for 895 City Center Blvd (174.00-03-11) in case a later assemblage makes sense.

3. Hampton Economic Development, 757-727-6237. Ask for every EDA-held tract of 10 acres or more in Hampton Roads Center North with current per-acre pricing, and the disposition plan for the Red Roof Inn and Quality Inn parcels at Coliseum Dr and Mercury Blvd.

4. Newport News Department of Development. Request the EDGE Summit site book and ask whether a 10 to 15 acre employment-anchor carve-out of the City Center Expansion Area is on the table. Same call covers Oriana Road.

5. Three private calls. JLL on 400 Butler Farm Rd (ask for a sale, not a lease). W.M. Jordan on Tech Center pads and deal structure. Costco real estate on the Ferguson remainder at Jefferson and Bland.

6. Have Timmons run the GIS screen. Pull Hampton and Newport News parcel layers, filter to 8 acres or more, zoning HRC, C-2, C-4, O or M districts, and owner names containing City, EDA, IDA, HRHA, or Authority. That catches anything this document-based screen missed. I could not reach either city's GIS server from this session.

7. Hampton Roads Alliance Real Estate Solutions. Ask for a CoStar pull of Peninsula land 8 acres and up, including off-market, and their read on what VNG's site selectors have already toured.

Method and limits

Acreage, ownership and zoning come from city fact sheets, council and EDA actions, news coverage, VEDP site data and brokerage listing records. Several figures are dated: the Hampton Roads Center North price flyer is undated, the Oakland Industrial Park parcel sizes are from a 2019 VEDP list, and listing prices move. Parcel-level GIS was not available from this environment, so boundaries, exact acreage and current owner of record should be confirmed before any letter of intent. Map positions are schematic. Sites below 8 acres from the same public inventories (Warwick Village 7 ac, Sherwood 7.74 ac, Washington Ave 5.3 ac, Hampton Roads Center North 3.26 and 1.97 ac lots) were excluded.
